Thank you for choosing The Renfrew Center, LLC as your health care provider. We are committed to the success of your treatment and care. Payment for services provided is part of the physician-patient relationship with your care team. Per the financial policy of the Renfrew Center, patients and guarantors are responsible for making the necessary payments toward the services they receive. With the changing environment in health care, more responsibility for payment is being placed on the patient in the form of copays, high deductibles, and out of pocket costs. This may also include direct payment for services not covered by insurance.

At the sole discretion of The Renfrew Center, we are offering you this opportunity to set up a mutually feasible payment plan for treatment you will receive or have already received. This payment plan agreement authorizes us to obtain and keep your credit card or debit card information on file as a convenient method of payment for the services provided. Your credit or debit card will be charged automatically for the negotiated amount, on the mutually agreed schedule. Continuous periodic installments are required for the duration of time and an outstanding balance exists on your account.

In consideration of The Renfrew Center accepting installment payments towards your balance, you are expected to:

1. Make the payments as agreed upon without default.
2. Make payments until the outstanding balance in your account is zero dollars ($0).
3. Provide all requested information on the agreement form.

For your convenience, The Renfrew Center offers this payment plan with no finance or interest charges. If we receive the periodic payments set forth in this agreement, our company shall not pursue any additional collection actions on your account. However, any default on the terms of this payment agreement shall render the entire outstanding balance due immediately, and payment in full will be expected. A default on the terms of the agreement shall result in our company pursuing collection efforts. An additional fee of up to 20% may be assessed for collection/legal fees as warranted.

IMPORTANT: It is the responsibility of the cardholder to notify The Renfrew Center of any card expirations, cancellations, etc.

This payment agreement shall be considered binding after the responsible party has signed and dated the agreement.
